

From 17 July, visitors and people will be able to move freely into the Northern Territory without quarantine unless they are from COVID-19 "hot spots"

This means keeping up with good hand hygiene is important to reduce the risk of contracting COVID-19 and other illnesses such as the flu and colds.

ASSOCIATION OF ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG AGENCIES NT

Together we make a difference